

Cross Country Jumps

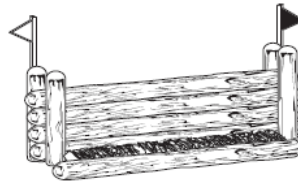

Teacher Copy

Name

Description

Post and Rail
Fence
(Vertical)

Also called "Upright" Planks or poles with no
width (spread)

Table Jump

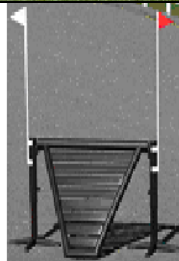

A wide, flat jump

Picnic Table

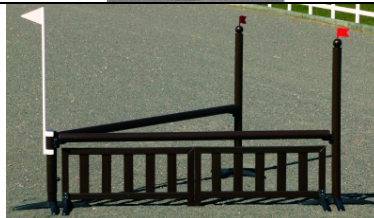

Arrowhead

Also called "Chevron"

Corner Jump

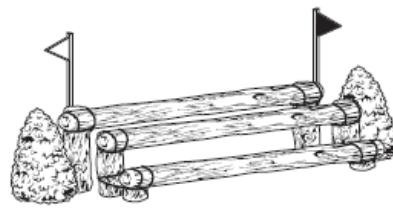

Rolltop

Stone wall

Gate	 Reproduction rights obtainable from www.CartoonStock.com A DILEMMA "HIND OF A JUMP IN A FIELD, BETWEEN THE POLE AND OF A BARRIER TO CROSS IN, I SHALL NEVER GET ON AGAIN."	A vertical jump.
Oxer (Ascending)		Two or more verticals placed, & jumped, together. Also called a "spread" The closest pole the lowest. Standards not connected.
Oxer (Triple Bar)		Three rails all attached to the same standard.
Coop		Triangular, widest at bottom. Very common on cross country courses.
Triangle Fence		Also called a "tiger trap".
Ski Jump		Only $\frac{1}{2}$ of a triangle Also called "Ramp"
Fan		Rails on one side are spread out with standards to look like a fan when viewed from above.
Water Jump		Any jump where your mount will touch the water, either before or after jumping, or both.

Brush Jump

Log Jump

Hay Bales

Bank

Any jump where your mount will jump up or down to another plane.

Ditch

Trakehner

Rail (log) over a ditch

Chair Fence

Skinny		Distance between the standards is reduced
Combination jumps		Two or more obstacles to be jumped as one; usually labeled A and B.
Closed Combination		A combination of two or more sets of jumps where the sides are closed in and the only way out is by jumping. Not allowed for D rates.
Combo: Bank & Water
Comb: Ditch & Brush

Created by the Shore Riders Pony Club, Delmarva Region, 2010

Identify these jumps:

Oxer

log jump

stone wall

water jump

vertical

brush jump

bank

coop

table top

ski jump

triangle jump

ditch